

'OLD WORLDS, NEW WORLDS, OTHER WORLDS'

BOOK REVIEW COMPETITION

Write a book review on a title you have enjoyed.

A large rectangular area with a thick black border and rounded corners, containing horizontal lines for writing a book review. The lines are evenly spaced and cover the entire area, providing a template for the student's response.

CHILDREN'S BOOK WEEK 2021

'OLD WORLDS, NEW WORLDS, OTHER WORLDS'

WINGECARRIBEE PUBLIC LIBRARIES BOOK REVIEW COMPETITION

Proudly supported by The Friends of Wingecarribee Libraries

Open to children 9-12 years

Entry Form

Using the 'Old worlds, new worlds, other worlds' theme, select a title you have enjoyed and write a book review.

You may like to include :

1) What the reader should know before picking up the book

Is it part of a series? Who is it aimed at? Is it easy or challenging?

2) What happens?

Be careful here to provide just enough information to hook someone in, but not give away the entire storyline.

3) Rate the book out of 5 with 5 being the best score

A selection of the best submissions will be posted on the library webpage after Book Week, for the community to read. Get writing for your chance to be among the lucky few. Your entry could win you a $20 book voucher! There are many prizes to be won.

Name :

Age :

Phone :

Email :

6 entries will be drawn to win a $20 voucher. Entries close Friday 3 September 2021. Winners will be notified by Monday 13 September 2021. Completed entries can be submitted at Bowral Library or via email to trudy.eccleston@wsc.nsw.gov.au.

